Dear Sirs! On July 5th. 1918 I or rather the firm of The Central Book & Newspaper Co of which I am the Successor sent you a cheque of £2.13.— ($12.75.) as a subscription to your "American Journal of Numismatics for the years 1916. 1917. 1918 cplt. to be sent direct to the Royal Mint. Tower Hill. London. E. 1. Now after so many years and not being able to get my money, they say, that the years 1917 & 1918 were received allright but not 1916 & until they receive that year they could not settle my account. Please see into this matter & report to me.

Yours faithfully E. Nelles

Mr. Rush:-

Please pack up and mail a copy of the 1916 Journal to

E. Nelles,
14 South Street, Finbury,
London, E. C.,
England.

November 24th, 1923.

E. Nelles, Esq.,
14 South Street, Finbury,
London, E.C.2, England.

Dear Sir:

In response to your card of the 13th, although our records show that a previous copy was sent you, because the Royal Mint reports that they never received the 1916 Journal, we are sending you another volume for transmission to them.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
